Interest in Cribbage Tournament. No more interest has been shown n any international contest the past winter and spring than the cribbage tournament that has been stubbornly contested for several months here. First one player and then another would gain a slight advantage only to reilinquish it again, making the final result in doubt. The tournament has some little time to run. At the close of play Tuesday John Bill was ahead by a narrow margin with B, Walden second.

superior court came in Tuesday morning at 10.15 o'clock with Judge Joel H. Reed on the bench arguments were resumed in the case of state vs. Thomas Delileux and William St. Andry, charged with theft from the person and assault with intent to rob. Attorney Thomas J. Kell—concluded the arguments for the defense. Special State's Attorney E. Frank Bugbee finished for the state, reviewing the case briefly. He finished at 12.05 and the court ordered a recess until 1.15.

After the recess the judge gave his charge to the jury was sent out at 1.38. Judge Reed stated that they could and they were sent out agair. They came in at the expiration of ar-other hour and five minutes and re-ported Deilleux guilty as charged with the information and St. Andry guilty of common assault.

Attorneys then argued the question of common assault.

Attorneys then argued the question of the punishment, State's Attorney Bugbee urging a severe penalty for Dellleux and a fair one for St. Andry. Attorney Danahey appealed for a reasonable punishment for Dellleux; Attorney Kelley asked the court to be as lenient as possible toward St. Andry in view of his youth and previous good record.

Judge Reed sentenced Dellleux to o a year in the county tail
